

BIOGRAPHY

Lena Rojdestvenski holds a Master of Fine Arts degree in art education (Art Academy, Latvia), and has been working with children for 29 years.

Children's art was exhibiting in Brooklyn, NY, Phoenix and Scottsdale. Also she has a Ph.D. degree in Spirituality in Health and Education from Ageless Wisdom University (Scottsdale).

Lena is the founder and art teacher at Drops of Rainbow, which first opened in 1993 in Brooklyn, NY, and three years later it was moved to Phoenix, AZ, and is now in Scottsdale, AZ.

"As a child art was my passion in life, but talented artists are not born - they have to study with teacher and dedication to achieve their goals..."

Phone: (480) 285-8063

www.dropsofrainbow.net

email: Lena@dropsofrainbow.net

SCHEDULE FOR CLASSES

Please call for summer session schedule.

Saturday classes:

9AM - 11AM 11:00 AM – 1:00 PM

1:00 PM – 3:00 PM 3:00 PM – 5:00 PM

Monday through Friday classes

1 PM – 3 PM 4 PM – 6 PM

Classes are limited to 6 students per class and based on age level.

Monthly payment $160 for 4 classes (student offered once per week).

Registration fee: $80 every 6 months of study.

We will provide all necessary materials and supplies except oil paint and canvas.

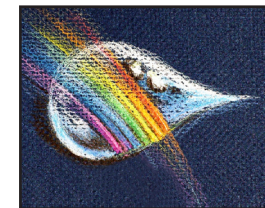

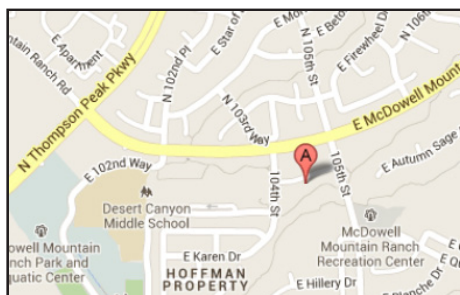

Registration by phone:

(480) 285-8063

Policy:

The monthly payments are due and payable in advance on the first of each month that the student takes classes for. You can make up missed classes during 2 months period. After that, the payment is nor refundable. Up to 7 days before your first class you may cancel your registration for a full refund after that there will be no refund. The parents are responsible for providing transportation for the students on time for each class period for both arrival and departure of the student. Prompt attendance is required.

Fine art school for children
Drops of Rainbow
 10405 E. McDowell Mountain Ranch Road
 Suite #120
 Scottsdale, AZ 85255

Fine Art School
Drops of Rainbow
 10405 E. McDowell Mountain Ranch Rd.
 Suite #120
 Scottsdale, AZ 85255

New Students now registering for this year session. Limited class sizes.

Continuous program is a wonderful opportunity for the student to create a unique works of Art and discover your Inner Beauty, Joy and Creativity. Students will learn fundamentals of drawing, perspective, proportion, discover variety and beauty of color, form, line, tone, how to plan compositions, how to use particular techniques and materials to express their ideas through colorful

Cassandra M., age 15

Daniel Z., age 8

Ava L., age 9

Harrison M., age 14

Daria B., age 14

Zoe R., age 13

Laura T., age 12

Kaya S., age 9

Drops of Rainbow

Students creative artwork

A wonderful world of Art will help expand creativity and imagination, sense of color and design, develop observational skills, building confidence - producing accomplished surprising results.

They will draw and paint everything: portraits and people, animals and birds, landscapes and cityscapes, flowers and still life - without worrying, but learning

Harrison M., age 12

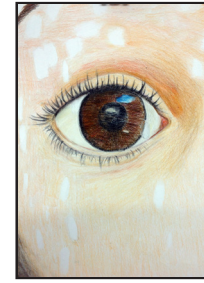

Aneri M., age 10

Laura T., age 13

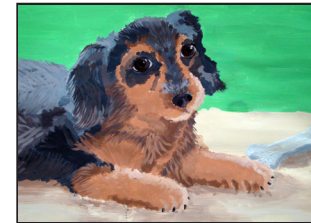

Sydney B., age 15

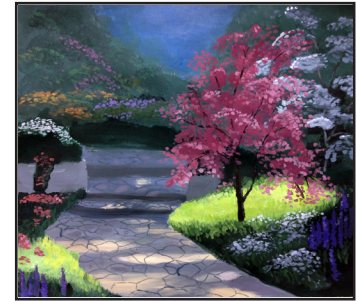

Mayka G., age 11

Selin B., age 9

Krishna S., age 11

Nikita T., age 10

Bobby M., age 9

Priyati S., age 10

They will draw a source of creativity from stories about virtues, to illustrate and encourage in them the principles of beauty, goodness, love, compassion, truth, and creativity. Through admiration of the great masterpieces, they will study art and discover beauty of culture that will vibrate their hearts and help them grow healthier and happier.

